WELCOME TO A PLACE WHERE HISTORY LIVES ON.

The hand-hewn yellow poplar beams around you were once part of barns and homes built over 200 years ago in the hills and hollers of Kentucky, West Virginia, and Tennessee. Carefully gathered over three years, these timbers now form the heart of this building—crafted during America's Bicentennial as a tribute to our heritage.

Enjoy your meal in the warmth of yesterday, and may we all be thankful for today's blessings.
